

4/H Army Child & Youth Services Adult Babysitter Program

The U.S. Army Child & Youth Services' Adult Babysitter Program enhances Soldiers' sense of wellbeing in the field by offering a common, Army-supported service to provide short-term care for his/her child at home. Further, it provides community members an opportunity to support military Families by caring for their children during mission or deployment related briefings or events.

1

Local community members are able to increase their community involvement through the Adult Babysitter Program, assisting parents in need of trained childcare providers.

2

The Adult Babysitter Program offers a standard training curriculum for one-time, universal endorsement across the Army's worldwide installations

3

The Adult Babysitter Program reduces distractions in the field by providing Soldiers with a secure family environment.

4

Adult Babysitter in the program are trained to provide age-appropriate care and resolve any potentially dangerous situations.

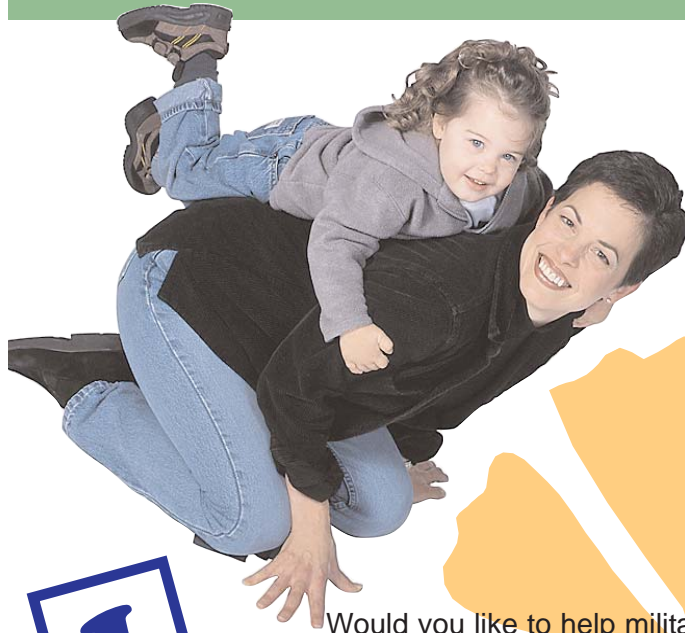

5

The Adult Babysitter Program offers a short-term childcare solution for military families that need supplemental support at home.

For more information contact: 4-hmilitary@csrees.usda.gov

4/H Army Child & Youth Services Adult Babysitter Program

1

Would you like to help military-connected parents by caring for their children for short periods of time?

2

By completing the Adult Babysitter Course, participants learn the skills and techniques needed to completely care for children.

3

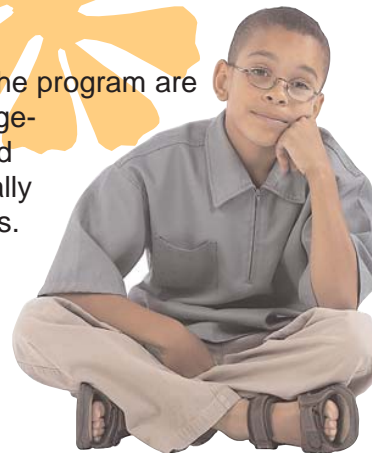

Local community members are able to increase their involvement through the Adult Babysitter Program, assisting parents in need of trained childcare providers.

4

Adult Babysitter in the program are trained to provide age-appropriate care and resolve any potentially dangerous situations.

5

Volunteer Adult Babysitter can provide a needed service to military families by caring for their children during mission or deployment related briefings or events.

For more information contact: 4-hmilitary@csrees.usda.gov