

2014 Senior 4-H Horse Quiz Bowl
Round 1

One-On-One

1. Chair 1: What is the name for the famous Thoroughbred horse that was referred to as the original “Big Red”?
A. Man-O-War S. Evans p. 22
2. Chair 2: What slang term refers to a racing stable employee who walks a hot horse after a race or workout?
A. Hot walker S. DET p. 144
3. Chair 3: What term refers to the right side of the horse?
A. Off side or far side S. DET p. 194
4. Chair 4: Which gait is commonly referred to as the “plantation gait”?
A. Running walk S. Evans p. 178
5. Chair 1: Healthy horses usually have what body condition score using the Henneke scale?
A. 4 to 6 (accept anything within that range) S. HIH 780-1
6. Chair 2: What type of equipment is described as a cross between a cavesson and a figure eight noseband?
A. Flash noseband S. DET p. 109
7. Chair 3: Which pony breed has adapted to harsh winter weather with the growth of a cluster of short hairs on the top of the tail that is referred to as an “ice-tail” or “snow-chute”?
A. Exmoor Pony S. HIH 157B-2
8. Chair 4: What current breed was formerly known as the “Palouse horse”?
A. Appaloosa S. HIH 152B-1

Toss-Up Questions

9. In general what does the prefix “hepato” indicate?
A. Condition related to the liver S. DET p. 138
10. What is the common term for the behavior referred to as dominance hierarchy?
A. Pecking order S. Evans p. 677

Bonus Question:

Identify two breeds that originated in the United States and were developed from crossing other breeds with Canadian pacers

Standardbred, American Saddlebred and Tennessee Walking Horse Evans p. 28, 38, 40

11. A grain that has been processed by rolling the kernels between corrugated rollers would be described as what type of processing?
A. Crimped or crimping S. Lewis p. 386
12. What type of knot forms the eye of the lariat that the rope passes through to form a loop?
A. Honda S. DET p. 141
13. Identify two general physiological processes in the horse that are affected by the length of daylight.
A. Hair coat; female reproduction (estrous cycles); male reproduction (testosterone production, sperm production) S. HIH 910-8

14. What term refers to the feces of a foal and is described as a yellow pasty material indicating that the meconium has been passed?

A. Milk feces

S. HIH 950-2

15. What breed of horse is described as a combination of any breeds that are not 100% hot-blood or 100% cold-blood?

A. Warmblood

S. HIH 151B-1

Bonus Question:

A spavin is a disease of the hock joint. What are three different types of spavins?

A. Blind spavin (occult spavin), Bone spavin (true spavin or jack spavin), Blood spavin, Bog spavin

S. Lewis p. 404

16. You are an equine construction specialist and are preparing a site for a new barn. In regards to topography, what would be your recommendation on slope percentage to facilitate proper drainage and prevent erosion?

A. Slope of 2 to 6 percent

S. HIH 320-2

17. What breed is being described... Noted for its speed and jumping ability although it can be stubborn. Able to withstand the severe weather in its country of origin which is Russia.

A. Akhal-Teke

S. DET p. 6

18. Clipping along the belly, under the neck & above the thigh is known as what type of body clip?

A. Trace clip

S. DET p. 950/3

19. According to the Dictionary of Equine Terms, what is the name of the person who looks after the horses on a trail ride?

A. Wrangler

S. DET p. 295

20. Which current breed of horse was previously known as a Golden Isabella?

A. Palomino

S. Evans p. 50