4-H CLOVERS & CO.

Each year, Clovers & Co. performs high energy shows for 4-H events, civic groups, and state and national conventions. Founded in 1981, a cast of 4-H vocalists, dancers, instrumentalists and production crew participate in this outstanding performing arts opportunity to promote and share with others the excitement, leadership and talent evident in 4-H. The show is primarily directed by volunteers who donate hundreds of hours to ensure a positive, entertaining and impactful production.

Clovers & Co. Alumni

Several graduates have gone on to careers in music and entertainment fields.

Jennifer Nettles, the lead singer in the band Sugarland, was a member from 1986 to 1993. She has won six Country Music Awards, one American Music Award, three Grammys and numerous other music recognition awards. Now, she advocates for 4-H on a national platform.

Hillary Lindsey, a member from 1990-1994, is an alumna whose music is heard across the globe. Three of her most notable works include “Jesus Take the Wheel” performed by Carrie Underwood, “American Honey” performed by Lady Antebellum and “Fearless” performed by Taylor Swift.

Austin French, a member 2004 to 2012, competing on reality singing competitions like ABC’s “Rising Star” and NBC’s “The Voice.” He has toured with Casting Crowns for his Christian album, Wide Open, which debuted at #2 on the iTunes Christian album Chart.
