

Maritime Forest Journal Questions

1. How does a salt marsh eventually develop into a climax maritime forest? What are a climax forest zones?
2. Why are the plants you might find in a transition zone different than ones you may find in a climax forest? What do we call these species of plants?
3. Name two ways a fallen log could benefit a maritime forest.
4. Why is the understory of the maritime forest important? List at least three reasons.

5. Who are the F.B.I. of the maritime forest and why are they important?

6. Draw and name at least two plants you learned during your forest walk. How did you identify them?

7. Define secondary succession and give two examples.

8. What are two plants you can find in the transitional zone of the maritime forest?

Making the best better!