

Pollination Station

What is a Pollinator?

Any animal that moves pollen around. Common pollinators are bees, bats, ants, wasps, butterflies, and even humans!

How Does Pollination Occur?

1. The pollinator gathers pollen from a flower.

2. The pollinator moves to another flower.

3. Pollen is transferred to the second flower!

