

Salt Marsh Ecology Journal Questions

1.	What are meroplankton and holoplankton? Give an example of each.
2.	What is a living shoreline? What does it do for the 4-H center and the animals that live in the marsh?

3. Draw a salt marsh and label each zone.

4. Give three reasons why a salt marsh is important.
5. What are some ways animals and plants have adapted to living in the salt marsh?
6. How do periwinkle snails respond to the tides?
7. Oysters are considered to be a keystone species of the salt marsh. Why are they so important?

8. What causes have a day?	the tides? How ma	iny high and low t	ides do we space for ro tampered w resources. L but wetland	ross the United Sta ads or agriculture, v ith so they cannot p aws have been put s are still disappean can help wetland m	while others have provide the same i into place to try a ring. Come up wit	been natural nd limit this,
10. What was y	our favorite activity	y you did at the m	arsh and why?