

4-H Tidelands Discovery Day Camp

Registration Form

At 4-H Tidelands Nature Center we encourage learning by doing. Our day camp provides youth an opportunity to have fun, while gaining an awareness of the natural environment. Georgia 4-H Tidelands Nature Center's Discovery Day Camp is a part of the state-wide Georgia 4-H Environmental Education (EE) Program, provided by five program sites in Georgia. The Georgia 4-H EE program began in 1979, and is now one of the largest environmental education programs in the nation. (For further information, visit www.georgia4h.org/ee). As of 2013 we have served over one million program participants! We welcome you as one of the next million!

Please complete and sign this form; along with the Medical Release and Code of Conduct for each camper. Send to 4-H Tidelands Nature Center: 100 S. Riverview Dr. Jekyll Island, GA 31527. Please keep a copy for your records! Call or email Corinne Zelig with questions: corinnem@uga.edu, 912-635-5032.

Directions

4-H Tidelands Nature Center is located at 100 S. Riverview Dr., Jekyll Island, GA 31527

From Brunswick, GA: Take the Jekyll (Downing Musgrove) causeway to Jekyll Island, GA. After you cross the bridge onto Jekyll Island, take the very first right onto South Riverview Dr. Take S. Riverview Dr. for ½ mile and Tidelands Nature Center will be located on the right, just before Summer Waves Water Park.

Contacting your Camper

- If you need to contact your child for an emergency, call us at Tidelands Nature Center, 912-635-5032.
- If no one answers, leave a message and we will return your call as soon as possible. Please realize, campers may be outdoors and it may take time before we can return your call.

Discipline

To maintain a safe and cooperative setting, 4-H Tidelands Discovery Day Camp has policies in place for camper's behavior. If it becomes necessary to resolve or correct any dangerous or disruptive behavior, 4-H Tidelands Nature Center staff will follow these guidelines:

1. Communication: Staff will discuss any problems with camper and together identify solutions available.
2. Time Out: Removal from a specific activity for a short period of time followed by further communication between staff/camper.
3. Contacting Guardian: If the problem continues, administrator will contact the parent/guardian to discuss further actions.
4. Dismissal from Program: The camper will be dismissed from the program and a parent/guardian will need to pick him/her up if the behavior continues to be dangerous or disruptive to the other campers. No refund will be provided if a camper must be dismissed.

Positive reinforcement is used to promote appropriate behavior. No physical discipline is allowed. Campers are expected to be friendly and courteous to each other.

Emergency Procedures

- In case of emergency, 4-H Tidelands Nature Center staff will contact the local EMS and proceed as directed, if required, to the appropriate local medical care facility (Southeast Georgia Regional Medical Center Emergency Room).
- Parents will be notified immediately of any emergency situation.
- If parents cannot be reached, action will be taken as necessary according to the medical release form.
- Tidelands staff are certified in CPR and First Aid and can act accordingly up to their training.
- An incident report will be compiled and filed by the Tidelands Staff/Coordinator.
